

UTN Advisory Council

Welcome to UTN's Acano web video conferencing service.
This technology is secure, reliable and very user friendly.
Please follow the steps below for easy set-up into your conference.

Important Tips for Getting Started

- Google CHROME works best. Other Internet browsers do not work reliably with this service.
- You can use any device to join the video conference as long as it has the ability to receive email or a text message and you have an internet connection
- If you are using an iPhone, iPad, or iPod Touch, you will need to download the ACANO app from the iTunes

Please click the following link to connect:

NOTE: You must open this link on the device that you will be using to connect. If this is not the device you will use to connect, please close this email and open it on the device that will connect. The link must be used each time you connect to the system. After clicking the link you should see the following.

The screenshot shows a mobile app interface for the UTN Advisory Council. At the top, it says 'UTN Advisory Council' and 'Welcome'. Below that is a text input field labeled 'Enter your Name' with a placeholder 'Your name (shown in call)'. There is a 'Join call' button with a dropdown arrow, and a 'Back' button at the bottom.

Enter your Name

Click 'Join Call'

If using an iPad, iPhone, or iPod - once you click 'Join Call' the device will ask if you would like to open in the Acano app, please click OPEN.

The device may also ask you to share your camera or microphone with the software, please click OK.
